GAS POISONING RESULTS FATALITY

Mrs. Arthur Tetrault Died at Providence Monday Morning — Suffered a Relapse from which She Did Not Rally

After lingering since Wednesday night in a well-nigh hopeless condition at the Rhode Island hospital in Providence, as the result of inhaling gas, Mrs. Arthur Tetrault of Taftville passed away Monday morning at 11:20 o'clock. Thus shrouded in grief ends the honeymoon of the young couple, who were wedded here last Tuesday in the Sacred Heart church. The husband, found dead Wednesday night in the Narragansett hotel in Providence, was sadly laid to rest Sunday and his bride will follow him by but a brief interval.

At ten o'clock Monday morning there came this telegram to the father of the bride:

Providence, R. I., Sept. 20. F. Marcoux, Taftville, Conn.
Mrs. Tetrault's condition worse. (Signed) Dr. Kearney.

And shortly after, to the family waiting in suspense, the end news came at 11:40 in this brief telegram:

Providence, R. I., Sept. 20. F. Marcoux, Taftville, Conn.
Mrs. Tetrault died 11:20. (Signed) R. I. Hospital.

Mrs. Marcoux, accompanied by Alfred Tetrault, brother of the deceased, had started from Taftville at 9 o'clock for Providence, expecting to find Mrs. Tetrault in an improved condition, as was indicated in the last reports of her condition. They were exceedingly shocked, therefore, when they arrived at the Rhode Island hospital, to learn that she had died but a short time before.

In Taftville, where the young woman was deservingly esteemed, the news of the second death in the tragedy spread rapidly and the general feeling of sorrow was deepened. To the family the sad tidings were unexpected, as the reports brought back by Taftville people who were in Providence Sunday, seemed to indicate a turn for the better. These people were Miss Rosa Bosse and Joseph French. Miss Bosse returned Sunday night with the cheering news that at the hospital Sunday morning, about 9:30, Mrs. Tetrault seemed to recognize her and even said "Hello" to her. A relapse set in Monday morning, however, and she died without being able to make a statement, and clear away the mystery which at present partly covers the sad happening.

The body of the deceased, accompanied by her father and Mr. Tetrault, will be brought home today.

Roseba Marcoux was born in Wedon, Province of Quebec, Canada, on October 22, 1888, the daughter of Frank and Celina Buell Marcoux. The family lived for some years in Wedon, later in Sherbrooke, and in this country have dwelt in Moosung, Manchester and Taftville. For the past three years they have resided in Taftville. By her charming disposition,

Miss Marcoux made a host of friends here and with her husband, Arthur Tetrault, started on her wedding trip last Tuesday, followed by the congratulations and well wishes of all. Now they mourn her loss, and that of her equally popular husband.

Mrs. Tetrault is survived by her parents, of 45 South A street, Taftville, by three brothers, Napoleon, Theodore and Ernest, and six sisters, all unmarried, Rosa Amanda, Elodie, Maria, Laura, Aurora and Exilia, all of Taftville.

Monday evening's Providence Tribune said:

Mrs. Arthur Tetrault of Taftville died at the Rhode Island hospital, day at 11:20 o'clock. Mrs. Tetrault and her husband of but a day were found in a room at the Narragansett hotel last Wednesday evening, victims of gas, which was escaping from a partly opened jet on the chandelier. Her husband was dead on the spot, but Mrs. Tetrault showed signs of life, and was hurried to the hospital, where the doctors and nurses worked incessantly in an effort to revive her.

Her case was at first regarded as hopeless and it was 56 1-2 hours before she regained consciousness. From that time she seemed to improve and Saturday evening appeared to be getting along finely, with an excellent chance for recovery. Yesterday, however, she relapsed and was unable to say "Hello" to her.

Early this morning, however, she had sinking spell, and Dr. Joseph E. Kearney, who has watched the case very carefully from the start, saw that she had no chance. She failed rapidly and died before noon. Her relatives, who had been led by her improved condition Saturday and Sunday to hope for her recovery, were shocked when the news of her death was told them. Not a thing was left undone for her recovery, but their efforts, although of the best, were unavailing.

Her body will be taken care of by her parents and the body will be taken back to Taftville, where that of her husband was shipped on Thursday last. This is one of the saddest tragedies that has ever come to the attention of the hospital authorities.

PROMISING ACADEMY SQUAD.

Twenty Gridiron Candidates Report—Half of Them from 1908 Teams—League Has Broken Up.

For a starter on Monday, the first day for Academy football practice this season, twenty aspiring candidates trotted out on the Academy campus to take the preliminary instructions under Coach Russell and Captain Gallivan. One end of the field is not yet cleared of lumber for the new building, but this will be moved off this week. It is expected, giving unrestricted use of the grounds, the gridiron will be marked out, the tackling dummy put into shape, and everything done to put out a team that will carry the colors with usual success.

Bright prospects of a strong eleven flashed before the eyes of the knowing ones when it was seen that at least six of last year's champions were out for the team this year, and at least half of the twenty candidates of hand were fellows with football experience on Academy teams. Of the 1908 team there were Gallivan, now captain, who was a star end and will make a great halfback, probably this year; Noyes, the cleverest half producer in the league last year; Rickerts, the sturdy center; Lawler, who worked as either quarter or half last season; Hendrick, the slick little quarter; and McCormick, the substitute end. Of last year's second team there were the two line men, Isblaster and Porter, also the two ends, Casey and McManama.

The new men who showed up for the opening day contained some promising material and included Shahan, Haynes, Murphy, Carl Taylor, Crowe, Burns, Swan, Kinney and Johnson. All the forces on hand were divided into line and backfield squads, the former being taught charging and the latter passing and falling on the ball. There was also some punting done and a stiff programme will be followed out each afternoon this week to make up for some of the time that has been lost, as the team is starting about a week later than the schools which it will play with.

League Will Disband.

Because of a resignation from the football league, received by President Joseph C. Worth, Monday morning from New London Manual Training school, the Eastern Connecticut Interscholastic football league is probably a dead one, as now only the Academy, Westerly high and Windham high are left in it. The other members of the league will be notified by President Worth of Manual Training's resignation, and the league will be considered defunct. On the part of the Academy boys, there will be no great regret that this has happened, as they can put on a stronger eleven now that they are independent of the league rules. Another reason for the league's disbanding is the eligibility restrictions adopted last year, both Captain Gallivan and Quarterback Hendrick would have been unable to play, greatly weakening the team.

A league schedule has already been adopted, and it is thought that the Academy can probably play these games on the dates as they have been arranged. This brings the first game in Willimantic on October 2 against Windham high school.

Edwin A. Tracy of Norwich told interestingly of historic features of the recent two hundred and fiftieth anniversary celebration in Norwich. Mr. Tracy's grandfather, Lieutenant Tracy, was officer of the day at Fort Trumbull when the night bombardment of Stonington took place, and a story written by Lieutenant Tracy, vividly picturing the scene by night, at a distance, was read.

YALE BEGINS FOOTBALL.

Squad of Sixty on Hand—Captain Coy Coming in About a Week.

New Haven, Sept. 20.—With the weather still too warm for good work the Yale football squad, numbering about sixty men, opened the season of 1909 with a two hours practice at Yale Field this afternoon. The greater part of the work was comparatively light, the last few minutes saw some brisk moving. In the squad are 25 freshmen who will remain with the main body until the opening of college when they will be taken charge of by George Richardson of Auburn, N. Y.

Head Coach Howard Jones, Yale 1908, announced as soon as the men had assembled that Captain E. H. Coy, who is in a hospital in New York city, recovering from an operation, would be unable to be present for over a week. Walter Logan, who is playing end, will act as captain in the meantime. The squad was divided and Henry M. Wheaton, halfback on last year's eleven, took charge of the backs. The work this afternoon consisted of punting, passing and falling on the ball, while the end candidates had special work in catching and in intercepting the forward pass. Several of the veteran players, including Goebel, Andrus, Hobbs, Daly, Murphy, Corey and Cooney, have not yet returned.

Sorry Baseball by New Londoners.

The baseball team of the Central Athletic club of New London gave a sorry exhibition of the game this week on the cranberry when they met the C. A. C. Juniors of this city and were defeated, 13 to 8. The Norwich players succeeded in running in the first inning on the miserable playing of the New London visitors and Manager Desmond had mercy on the crowd present and refrained from passing the hat. If the rising generation in New London can't play baseball any better than the team that appeared here, it's an awful outlook for the Whaling town.

Mohicans vs. Mail Carriers.

Tuesday evening the Mohican bowling team will play a team of good bowlers picked from Uncle Sam's force of this city. Last week the Mohicans were defeated but are confident that they will carry off the honors. Another of the Mohican team, who was absent last week, will be out there with bells on this week and will play in place of Sub Larkie. A good game is expected.

Final in Polo.

Dedham, Mass., Sept. 20.—The Great Neck and Dedham polo teams went through the finals in the Karlstein tournament here this afternoon, the former club defeating Dedham 10-2 to 7-4, and Dedham B winning over Myopia A, 6-1-2 to 3-5-4.

Taft and His Party.

Speaking for himself on this journey Mr. Taft will be heard respectfully and with due reverence. The people know that he was honest in his interpretation of the platform. They know that while his party tried to do its worst to bring down his best, they will forgive much in him. They will forgive nothing in Aldrich and Cannon.

If the performance of the republican party at the extra session was the best that could be expected, then the men who control that organization are false to their oaths.—New York World.

IT IS FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herplide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out. Herplide thickens the hair, with Newbro's Herplide. Herplide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herplide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root shoots up, and the hair grows as long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herplide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Partly false to people and false to their oaths.—New York World.
